Bring a toy and/or send some treats to General Synod to benefit Best Friends Animal Society

Written by Connie Larkman

The General Synod of the United Church of Christ is taking on a service project this June in Baltimore to serve people's best friends.

"When Valerie and Lee asked us to help with the service projects, I proposed to the Local Arrangements Committee that we do projects to benefit people, the environment and animals.

I don't recall ever hearing about a service project for animals at Synod, so I thought it might be worth a try," said Jill White, chair of the Central Atlantic Conference Local Arrangements Committee. "I had originally contacted another program in Baltimore, but they are not a no-kill shelter. So, I went to Best Friends - a program based in Utah that my husband and I have supported for years. I was concerned about them not being Baltimore based, but they work with shelters in Baltimore so it seemed a great fit."

Best Friends Animal Society is the only national animal welfare organization focused exclusively on ending the killing of dogs and cats in America's shelters. An authority and leader in the no-kill movement, Best Friends runs the nation's largest no-kill sanctuary for companion animals, as well as lifesaving programs in partnership with rescue groups and shelters across the country.

If you are going to General Synod, you are being encouraged to support this service project for cats and dogs by donating toys and treats for the animals. Best Friends Animal Society will have representatives on site during the gathering, June 29 - July 4, to help collect and distribute items to shelter partners in the Baltimore area. They will also be accepting financial donations. Read more.

ISC will take your toy or treats with us to General Synod if you send or bring them to the Highland Office at 1312 Broadway, Highland, IL 62249.

Hoyleton Serves the Most Vulnerable Population

by Chris Cox, CEO & Director of Hoyleton Youth & Family Services

One of Hoyleton's values is the commitment to serve the most vulnerable members of our community. It is important for us to celebrate the many ways which this happens within our ministry.

Among all of the struggles our country is facing today, our Hispanic brothers and sisters may be the most threatened. Within the past four weeks, I am aware of nine families within Fairmont City that have been detained and are now awaiting a deportation hearing. Families are being split up and children are now being brought into the state childcare system. No matter our individual political beliefs or our personal view on immigration no one wants to see children traumatized and separated from their loved ones. Our team members in Puentes de Esperanza recognized weeks ago the importance of assisting this vulnerable population. To help them better understand their legal rights, they developed an assigned guardianship process. As part of a multi-agency provider and attorney initiative, we were able to conduct three seminars where 200 parents gained invaluable assistance in creating guardianship plans for their families in case something were to happen. As a direct result of our team members recognizing a threat to a vulnerable population, we were able to mobilize the needed resources to ensure children are safe. Our Puentes team is living out our organizational values.

current interest of faith communities in operating as sanctuary churches, the legal risks, and ways churches can minister to undocumented persons. This information is relevant and timely for all UCC, Disciples of Christ (Christian Church), Presbyterian Church(USA) and Alliance of Baptist churches. Everyone is invited to attend.

With "Christian Faith and Our Religious Neighbors" and in conjunction with the Armin and Shirley Limper Program in Christianity and World Religions, Eden Seminary brings together three leading scholars on Christianity and pluralism to consider these questions and re-imagine Christianity's relationship with other faiths. LESSONS FROM THE WOMAN AT THE WELL

The way in which the story of the woman at the well is told in John 4: 1-42 causes me to wonder why the Samaritan woman was drawing water at the hottest part of the day.

Common sense would be that the best time of the day to draw water would be in the cool of the morning, not the heat of high noon. Something certainly the woman at the well would know. Perhaps previously, others had ostracized her or perhaps she had isolated herself out of fear and shame.

People often distance themselves when they need others the most. Think about how this often happens in the church. People go through difficult circumstances or they make unfortunate decisions that create difficult situations and they distance themselves.

They come late and leave early. They sit in the back row and avoid conversation.

Before you know it, they seem to drift off and disappear. They are afraid to be seen. They are afraid to admit the heavy weight of fear, shame, and guilt that they are carrying.

I believe the woman who came to draw water from the well that day was carrying a story she feared no one would receive or understand. She was afraid to be seen as she really was. What if people really knew her? What if people really knew her past decisions, choices, and series of unfortunate events? Could anyone ever accept her?

This fear is a fear that, if we are honest with ourselves, we all carry. What if people knew _____?-- and you can fill in the blank.

What if people knew...

You are bad with money.
You are bad at relationships.
You struggle with addiction.
You struggle with depression.
You lose your temper too often.
You lose jobs too often.
You disappoint others.
You disappoint yourself.
What if people knew?

Along with her water jar, perhaps this also is what the woman carries with her when she encounters Jesus.

After asking her for a drink of water, Jesus assures her HE can offer her the living water, water that will quench a thirst she has spent a lifetime seeking. Yet, the shame she has been trying to hide rises up from the pit of her stomach and turns into the burning sensation of shame in her throat when Jesus says to her, "Go call your husband, and come back." She can no longer hide. Then she looks at Jesus and something beautiful, something miraculous, something transforming happens. Jesus sees her and she senses that he accepts her and will not judge her. She feels safe. Safe to be herself.

Safe to reveal her truth. "I have no husband." As soon as she says it aloud, something changes, something shifts. The past no longer has power over her because the way in which Jesus receives her truth.

Without judgment or condemnation, Jesus acknowledges her with,

"You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!"

Jesus offers her the gift we all need...we all long for...for which we thirst.

He creates a safe place for her to be honest, open and vulnerable. Then, when she reveals her truth, he offers her unconditional love, grace, and extravagant welcome.

Jesus models in that moment what he calls us to model and live out in the church.

The mission of the church of Jesus Christ is to seek to offer safe places where people can be honest, open, and vulnerable. Places where the transforming love, grace and extravagant welcome of Christ is practiced and can be received by all who walk through our doors.

May we be like the Samaritan woman. May we first have the courage to tell the truth, to be honest with ourselves and with God. Then may we accept the powerful truth that Jesus sees us completely, knows us fully, and forgives us freely. May we receive Christ's gift of overflowing grace. Finally, may we follow her example and share the good news and the gift of Christ's transforming love, grace, and extravagant welcome with all. Blessing, Shana

VOLUNTEERS are the HEART

Volunteers are the heart of strong and healthy Outdoor Ministry programs. Join us for a few hours on a Sunday afternoon, a couple days during the week or a full week of camp. Volunteers work hand in hand with paid summer staff to provide our fun, engaging and faith-filled program. For more information contact DuBois Center at dcinfo@DuBoisCenter.org or 618-787-2202. Volunteer applications are available online.

MEET our SUMMER STAFF

Welcome, Ryan Goetter, to our 2017 team! This will be his third season on summer staff. Ryan grew up near Collinsville IL, an avid member of his high school band and active member of St. John Evangelical UCC. He attended summer camp at DuBois Center for many years, including our C.I.T. (Counselors in Training) program in 2013. While in high school, Ryan volunteered as a teacher for 4-H groups. That experience has proven to be valuable as DuBois Center began partnering with 4-H of Southern Illinois for their summer camp program. This summer, Ryan will be coordinating our staff team for that endeavor. In addition to serving as a Counselor/Activity Specialist for DuBois Center, Ryan also counsels for Camp Phoenix, the summer camp for the Episcopal Dioceses of Missouri.

Ryan is a student at Missouri State University where he studies Instrumental Music Education. This has given him even more experience working with youth through practicum credit hours. On campus, Ryan works in the business office of the medical clinic and is actively involved in Lambda Chi Alpha. He is the Director for Drug and Alcohol Awareness for the MSU chapter of FLSA (Fraternity and Sorority Leaders of Social Awareness). Ryan is passionate about summer camp - from the magical "escape from the real world" to the wacky songs and the spirit-filled worship circles. The wonderful, often off-beat, interactions with campers and the enduring friendships with fellow staff members - he loves it all!

RECYCLE your GOLF CART

Planning to replace your golf cart this spring? Have one that is just taking up space? DuBois Center is in need of a 4-seat golf cart - gas or electric. Currently our nurses use a gator with two seats to respond to situations and deliver medication. If a camper needs to be transported back to the health center for treatment, there is no room for a third person. Renting a golf cart for the summer is very expensive, so we are exploring other options. You can help with this critical need and, perhaps, save some on your taxes. Donations are tax-deductible. Contact Shirley at dcinfo@DuBoisCenter.org or 618-787-2202 for more information.

If this date doesn't work for you or your group, join us on April 22 or call to set up an alternative date. Permission forms and waivers are needed for all attendees.
