Yearend Donations

As your church prepares for the end of the year, please mark January 8 as the deadline to send in your 2023 donations to the Conference office. Below are some tips for sending in your end-of-the-year gifts. Please share this information with the staff members or officers of your church entrusted with this responsibility.

- Please mail all your end-of-the-year donations to OCWM, Friends of the Conference, and special missions so they will arrive at the Conference office by noon on Monday, January 8, 2024. This deadline will enable us to record your giving and complete the process necessary to meet the National setting's deadline of receiving and recording your gifts to the wider Church.
- When you send in your donations, include your Church contribution form so we can appropriately record and credit your church for your gifts.
- Please clarify on the Church contribution forms if the enclosed donations should be applied to 2023 or 2024.

If you have any questions, please call Debbie Kesner at the Conference office at (618) 654-2125. We are grateful for all the ways you support the work and mutual ministry of our Conference and the United Church of Christ.

May we all experience the blessings of hope, joy, love, and peace of this Advent and Christmas season to carry us forward in faith into the New Year.
